April 2016 Employee of the Month

Officer Kris Billingsley

In February 2016, Officer Kris Billingsley, along with other officers, learned of an unreported burglary involving a firearm. The victim of the burglary was unwilling to come forward. Additionally, the burglary was caught on surveillance camera and involved multiple suspects that were believed to be the main suspects in numerous other residential burglaries in and around the Quincy area. Multiple QPD officers spoke with a subject who knew information on this case, but they remained uncooperative. Officer Billingsley knew this person and was able to make contact with him. He slowly provided Officer Billingsley with information. Officer Billingsley was able to set up a meeting with the victim and a police report was filed. Ultimately, Officer Billingsley was able to arrest two subjects for this residential burglary and additional arrests are anticipated. It is hoped that the information gleaned through this investigation will help in other cases as well.

During this investigation, Officer Billingsley showed outstanding motivation and willingness to self initiate an old case that was going nowhere. Additionally, he showed great patience in dealing with multiple subjects that were initially uncooperative with other officers. If it wasn't for Officer Billingsley, the case would have easily gone unsolved.

From Patrol

Information submitted by Lt. Dan DuHamel, Shift 1

Dayshift Squad 1:

On Friday April 15th, Officers Cirrincione and Willis participated in the mock DUI/Fatality accident scenarios being conducted on the Quincy Senior High parking lot located at 3322 Maine. Three scenarios were done which involved Cirrincione and Willis investigating suspected mock DUI suspects and running the actors through real Field Sobriety tests and making mock arrests. This was a fantastic exercise, which involved members of the Quincy Police Department, Quincy Fire Department, Adams County Ambulance personnel, and many representatives of the Quincy Public School System.

On Friday April 22nd Sgt. Dusch, Sgt. Yates, Officer Werries and Officer Cirrincione worked a burglary detail in the area of the AMC Theater parking lot after receiving numerous complaints of two teenage males entering vehicles on the parking lot. The suspects are believed to be Quincy High School students who are burglarizing vehicles during their lunch hour.

Dayshift Squad 2:

On Friday, April 8th, Officer Eddy responded to 604 S. 16th for a report of a stolen firearm and various coins being reported by a Michael Taylor. Taylor advised that a Haley Anderson, Age 22, was in possession of the stolen 9 mm handgun. Anderson was ultimately located hiding at the Crossing Church located at 48th & Maine by Officers Eddy and Baird. Anderson was interviewed by Officers Eddy and Baird, and confessed to stealing the handgun and stashing it at a friend's house. The handgun was subsequently recovered, and Anderson was lodged in the Adams County Jail on the charge of Possession of a Stolen Firearm. Officers Eddy and Baird did a fantastic job getting a stolen firearm off of the streets.
